no man ste - al your thyme; _____ let _____ no man ste - al your thyme. For when your thyme, it is past and gone _____ he'll care no more for you. _____ And ev - 'ry place where your thyme was _____ waste, will all spread o' - er with rue; will all spread o' - er with rue. The gard - 'ner's son was stand - ing by, three flow - ers he gave to me. The pink, the blue and the vio - let,

too. And the red, red ros - y tree, and the red, red ro - sy tree. But I ref - used the red rose bush and gained the wil - low tree. That all the world may plain - ly see how my love slight - ed me; rit.

how my love slight - ed me.
